

INTRODUCTION

Section 4:

NOTIFICATION

Description:

This section includes examples of documents mailed to customers or vendors during the implementation process.

These notifications are designed to trigger activity in another telecommunications carrier, vendor or customer.

Comments:

Customer notification is very important to the implementation process to keep them informed or project progress and on-line status.